

The Eldridge Park Carousel is owned by the Eldridge Park Carousel Preservation Society.

We are a not for profit corporation that has worked diligently with the help of volunteers, individuals, businesses and corporations to recreate this masterpiece for your enjoyment.

We are proud to be incorporated into your family's memories and traditions. For this reason, photographing the interior of the building, the carousel and its' animals is permissible solely for private use.

Taking of photographs for business opportunities and/or personal gain is deemed unethical and is STRICTLY PROHIBITED.
